

EWG Band Student Behavior Contract

Los Angeles, CA – April 11-15, 2013

It is understood that all Exeter West Greenwich Public School rules shall be followed while on the trip to Los Angeles, CA with the EWG High School Band, April 11-15, 2013. It is also understood that behavior that is disruptive or/and disrespectful and interferes with the trip will be severely dealt with by the faculty present on the trip.

CONSEQUENCES: A student will be sent home at the parent/guardian's expense in the event that he/she breaks any of the rules, acts inappropriately, or becomes ill.

CONDUCT

1. I understand that I am representing my school, my community, and my family and will behave and dress appropriately while on this trip.
2. My behavior will be subdued and courteous in public establishments such as the hotel, restaurants, attractions, etc.
3. I will be courteous and respectful of everyone on the trip including other hotel guests, bus drivers, chaperones, and band students.
4. I will represent my community, school, and band with my best conduct, attitude, and effort.

HOTEL BEHAVIOR

1. I understand there will be NO boys in girls' rooms and NO girls in boys' rooms.
2. I will not be allowed to change hotel rooms without permission of the Director.
3. When I am told to be in my room, I will be there and not leave.
4. When I am told the lights are to be out, lights will go out so that my roommates will be able to go to sleep. I will use my head phones to listen to music quietly, or play electronic games with sound off so as to not disturb my roommates.
5. I will respect my room mates' belongings.
6. I will respect hotel property.

SAFETY / HEALTH POLICIES

EWG MEDICAL / TRAVEL FORM: A form must be on file along with proof of insurance for the student.

ILLNESS: Any illness or injury should be reported to your chaperone and Director immediately no matter how unimportant it may seem. In the event that a student becomes ill, the student may be sent home as per EWG Public Schools' policies.

The student will be sent home at the parent's expense.

MEDICATION: All medication must be in the original prescription container with the student's name and a current date. All medication containers must be in a labeled zip-locked baggie with a medication dispensing form. Only the amount of medication needed for the trip should be in the container.

DEPARTURE

1. I am to be at EWG High School's band room at 2:00 AM. on Thursday, April 11, 2013, for my suitcase, backpack, purse, and instrument case to be searched by an EWG chaperone before we board the buses.
2. I will be aware of our daily schedule so I can be on time to meet our buses or guides.

MOTOR COACH RULES

1. Students will not be allowed to change buses without permission of the Director.
2. The bathroom is for emergencies only. Anything you put in there will be there for the duration of the trip! Rest stops will be made every two hours or as requested by your chaperone
3. Snacks that create a mess such as sunflower seeds are not allowed, and gum is strictly forbidden onboard the bus.
4. Bottled water is the only beverage allowed on board the bus, and bottles should be kept capped when not in use. No glass containers or bottles will be allowed on the bus.

COMMUNICATIONS / CELL PHONE USE

1. I understand that cell phones may not be used during rehearsals and performances.
2. I will call my family on a cell phone as soon as I arrive in California, when I get to the hotel, every morning before boarding the bus for the day's activities, and just before evening curfew.
3. My family and friends may stay up-to-date on trip happenings by subscribing to email blasts or visiting the band website at www.ewgbands.com.
4. Hotel phones may not be used. If any bill is incurred, it will be the parent's responsibility to pay it.
